Governor Foss will make the principal address, and while he and his party are here they will be entertained by the Park Seeds Events of the Seeds Events of

Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the President, passed through the Shenandoah Valley yesterday atternoon on her way to spend some time at Het Springs. During the time the Baittmore and Ohio Italiroad Irain stopped here Miss Taft remained in the car, an ordinary day coach, and chatted with a number of friends who were with her. She was handed a number of messages, telling about the fight at Chicago, which pleased her greatly.

Rev. D. G. Bromlow, who came to Frederick county early in the spring to assist Rev. Frank A. Strother in his work as paster of the Brucetown effective of the fouthern Methodest Church, created quite a stir among his parishioners a few days ago, when he cloped with Miss Mabel Barbour, the pretty and vivacious sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barbour, of near Inwood. Berkeley county, W. Va., and they were married in Hagerstown, Md., by Rev. C. L. Pate, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal Zhurch. The young couple then went to the home of a relative of the bride in Martinsburg and telephoned to the bride's parents, who forgave them.

James Cather, fifty-seven years old, a lifelong resident of Frederick county until the time he moved to Winchester, a year ago, on account of ill health, died on Saturday afternoon at his home here. For many years he was a member of the Board of Supervisors, a member of the board of directors of the Union Bank of Winchester and the Shenandoah Valley Agricultural Society, and was a deacon in the Presbyterian Church. His widow, who was Miss Ida Lupton, two brothers and three sisters, survive.
